第二节 书面表达 (满分 25 分)

【参考范文】

Dear John,

I'm glad to be informed that you show great interest in traditional Chinese festivals. Here I feel rather delighted to introduce the Tomb-Sweeping Day to you.

China's traditional Tomb-Sweeping Day dates back to the Zhou Dynasty, which usually falls on April 5 in the solar calendar, with a history of more than 2,500 years. The festival was created to honor the dead.

Traditionally, people will bring food and drinks to the cemetery to worship their ancestors. Meanwhile, it is also a chance for the family members to reunite and to remember.

In my opinion, as a traditional Chinese festival, the Tomb-Sweeping Day keeps us reminded of our lost families and cherishing the living ones. By celebrating it, we follow the trace of the forefathers and move on with their memories.

Best wishes!

Yours,
Li Hua

一、各档次评分参考标准

档 次	给分范围	语言要点表达情况划档依据
第五档	21~25	要点齐全, 语言基本无误, 行文连贯, 表达清楚

5. 文章内容要点全面, 但写出了一些多余内容 (连接或过渡词句不在此列), 原则上不扣分;
6. 凡书写超出规定的答题区域, 全卷不给分;
7. 书写潦草凌乱、但基本不影响阅卷的, 酌情扣卷面分 1~2 分。

听力材料

Text 1

M: You went to Japan last year. Are you going outside Asia this year?

W: No, but this is different. It's the first time ever!

M: What's special about that, just another flight trip to another city.

W: We're going to Singapore by ship!

Text 2

W: Is your business doing well?

M: Yes, very well, especially if you consider we only started the company a year ago. In fact, we'll employ two trainees over the next few months.

W: Hmm. And you're about to design a new product?

M: It's already available, actually.

Text 3

W: I tried the trousers but they are too big. Have you got them in a smaller size?

M: Not at the moment, but we're getting a new delivery in on Friday.

W: Oh, that's good. I'm not in a hurry for it.

Text 4

W: Are you ready to order now?

M: I think so

W: What would you like for your starter?

M: I'd like French onion soup, please.

Text 5

W: John, listen to the traffic news. Due to a bridge falling down, moving is very difficult around Norcombe Central Station.

M: Terrible. And the police recommend buses and cars should avoid the area for the time being.

Text 6

W: I wish that the shuttle bus would hurry and get here. I'm going to be late for my next class.

M: Why don't you just walk there instead? Or is your class just too far away to get there on time?

W: Unluckily, my class is on the other side of the school. If I walked there, it would take about thirty minutes to arrive.

M: I guess it is impossible to walk. Well, I'm late for my own class. I'll see you later.

Text 7

W: Good afternoon, Megequip. This is Sally speaking. How may I help you?

M: Oh hello. I'd like to order 8 desks from you.

W: Yes. I need to write down some information first. Your name, address?

M: Oskar Greening. The address is No. 52C, York Avenue. Erm, sorry, I'm out all day. But my neighbor can take delivery at No.5 York Avenue.

W: OK, fine. Will you be paying by credit card or check?

M: Well, could I pay cash in advance?

W: Well, I guess so. But I'm afraid that payment method doesn't give you the 10% discount.

M: No, I didn't expect one for that.

Text 8

M: I can't find the receipt for my plane tickets from that trip I took last week.

W: Not again, Phil! This is the third time this week you've lost something.

M: I need to find that receipt, or my company won't pay me back for my plane tickets. I've looked in my desk, in the wallet, in the pockets.

W: If I were you, I'd check the suitcase you were using during the trip. Remember what happened last time?

M: Oh, yeah. Thanks a lot. I think I lost it there.

Text 9

M: Good morning. It's a pleasure to have Sabina with us today to tell us about the life of a professional tennis player. So Sabina, how do you prepare for a competition?

W: Well, you must have a lot of physical skill, and you have to be physically ready and trained of course, but for me, it's more important to be mentally prepared.

M: What do you think about just before going on court?

W: I just think about what I'm going to do on the court, you know, the technique. I don't think of the person I'm playing against.

M: Does your strong body come just from playing tennis?

W: No, I work out as well and I eat really well. I eat a plant-based diet. No animal products like milk or eggs. Believe it or not, I feel stronger since I cut off meat.

M: What will you do after tennis?

W: Well, I've been training and playing full-time since I was 18. So after tennis, I'll be excited to see what it's like to have more free time.

M: Thank you and good luck at Wimbledon in two weeks.

Text 10

W: OK, everyone. Thanks for coming along to find out about our extreme camping trip. Before I start, can I remind you about our training day? Because it'll probably rain tomorrow, we've decided to do this on Saturday instead of Thursday. We're starting at 8:30, so make sure you're there on time.

There are different ways to experience extreme camping, but on our trip it means bringing no food or water with you. We're going to eat only what nature can provide. But don't worry. I'm sure you won't be hungry. We're camping at Sandy River and it's easy to find lots of delicious fruit and vegetables nearby. I expect some of these will be quite unfamiliar to you, but your guide will make sure you only eat what's safe.

There are also other types of food you can find. The guide will show you where to look for eggs. There are other places you can look for these apart from trees. For example, some birds leave them in holes in the ground or in the grass like snakes do.

Now of course we'll not bring any cooking equipment like a camping cooker or a frying pan, so you're going to learn how to cook your food on a hot rock, which is heated by fire.

Now what about drinks? You'll have to live without juices or hot chocolate, I'm afraid. You'll get all the water you need from rivers and streams but you must remember to boil it for at least three minutes to make sure it's safe to drink.

Right, so before I continue, I'll answer any questions you've got about food.
