作文 Dear Beth,

Glad to know that you want to learn to play table tennis. I fully support your idea. Playing table tennis is really fun and good for health. I recommend our school's coach Mr. Wang to you. He's experienced and patient. You'll surely learn well with him.

Yours,

Li Hua

I hurried into the theater, only to find there were even more bikers inside. They filled most of the seats and were chatting loudly. I felt a bit panicked and quickly found an empty seat in a corner, trying to make myself as inconspicuous as possible. I was still nervous, constantly glancing at them, wondering what would happen next.

When the film began, I realized that the bikers were an animal rescue group. They quieted down and watched intently. They were actually the ones who had been helping the shelters. I felt so relieved and ashamed of my earlier misjudgment. I was glad I didn't turn back and got to know these kind-hearted people through this special event.
