Dear John,

How is it going with you? I'm happy to have received your email in which you showed great concern about my plan for the coming summer holiday. Now I'd like to share it with you.

As for my holiday plan, I'm really looking forward to a fulfilling summer. At the beginning of the vacation, I plan to take a short trip to Hangzhou with my parents. I can't wait to explore its famous scenic spots, try local delicacies, and soak up the unique cultural atmosphere. When I'm back home, I'll review the knowledge from this term and preview new textbooks to get a head start. I know this summer will be crucial for my future, so I'll make the most of every moment.

Thank you very much for your concern. Best wishes!

Yours,

Li Hua

第二节 参考范文

Now that Del had forgiven me, I decided to do more before the recess was over. Standing up, I shouted towards the kids playing kickball, "Hey, guys! Del's a great player! Let him join the game!" Some of them looked at me in disbelief. "Are you serious? He's a troublemaker," one of them called back. "No, he's not," I replied firmly. "His mom was in the hospital, and he was just worried about his little brother. He didn't do anything wrong." Slowly, the kids began to realize their mistake. One of the players walked over and extended his hand to Del. "Come on, Del. We need another player," he said with a smile. Del hesitated for a moment, then stood up and joined the game. As I watched him running and laughing with the others, I felt a sense of relief and happiness. I knew that this was just the beginning of making things right, and I was determined to be a better friend to Del from now on.
